Flat on your Bacharach

For over 40 years Burt Bacharach has been a name synonymous with sophistication, elegance and style. Producing a stream of potent, unforgettable hits, Bacharach is responsible for some of pop music's most exhilarating moments. Now you can re-live these glorious sounds through the critically acclaimed cabaret show "Flat on your Bacharach".

The breathtaking, velvety tones of Libby O'Donovan and the awesome, evocative voice of Melissa McCaig combine with the mastery of Matthew Carey on piano to present the timeless classics of the Bacharach songbook – with their own wry twist of fun! Packed with personality and style, the Flat on your Bacharach trio promises to deliver a luscious musical journey.

Flat on your Bacharach debuted with a two-night season at the 2001 Feast Festival in Adelaide, where the show completely sold out, winning rave reviews.

In 2002 the show was booked for the Adelaide Festival Centre's 'Morning Melodies' series and became the fastest-selling show the producers had ever seen. June 2002 brought a sell out season at the Adelaide Cabaret Festival and later that year the show was invited to perform at the cultural festival attached to the Sydney Gay Games.

2003 has heralded a successful regional tour of South Australia in April with the support of Country Arts SA. Flat on your Bacharach have just returned from a performance in Vancouver, Canada in August 2003 and continue to perform to sell out audiences in local concert and cabaret venues. Plans are underway for further national and international touring in 2004.

Corporate clients have included: The Leukaemia Foundation, BHP Billiton Wellington, The Urban Development and Planning Group, Annesly College and many more...
