Rachel Berger

"It is the offbeat observation, the incisive knack of showing up everyday events for the ludicrous pantomimes they really are that separate the women from the girls. In this department Rachel Berger is a real star..."

The Guardian, London

"An uninterrupted high-octane monologue, delivered at breathtaking speed..."

Elle Magazine, Britain

Rachel Berger is widely acknowledged as one of Australia's finest Stand Up Comedians. Her material is political, psychological and socially conscious. It encompasses contemporary lifestyles, offering an hilarious and poignant expose of human foibles. Her dynamic presence and engagingly sharp observations have made her an extremely popular performer both live and on television, across Australia and overseas.

Rachel has performed four times at the Edinburgh Festival in Scotland. "A feisty ambassador from Oz who pulls no punches." Whilst in Britain she has made numerous television appearances and performed extensively on the London comedy circuit.

Rachel's television credits include appearances on Rove Live, Tonite Live, The Big Gig, The Midday Show, Hey Hey It's Saturday, Denton, co-host of 1996 Comic Relief live-to-air, nationally on the Nine Network, World Series Debating and Good News Week, Good Morning Australia.

She's featured in the ABC TV's documentary Punchlines, 20 years of Australian Comedy, and The Smallest Room in the House.

Rachel has prodded listeners into a new day with her early morning "Slice of Life" monologues on Radio National's Daybreak program and co-presented with John Fain on ABC Radio 3LO. She has also written various articles for The Age, The Sunday Age, The Sunday Herald Sun and other national publications, such as New Woman and Rolling Stone magazines. Currently she is writing a regular weekly column for The Melbourne City Weekly, She has just completed her novel.

CLIENT FEEDBACK:

"Rachel Berger is the consummate performer – vibrant, entertaining and totally in tune with her audience. She was definitely the highlight of the evening for us and it would be our pleasure to welcome her back to a future venue."

Australian Hotels Association

"You had the audience captivated. Your material was well researched and well targeted. You had our mostly male audience enchanted by your relaxed delivery and your insightful and hilarious commentary on our industry."

“She sized up her audience wonderfully and presented just the right balance of sending up people without offending any-one.”

Chant Link & Associates

“Undeniably, Rachel’s efforts and warmth served as a major contributory factor to the success of the evening.”

Software Consulting Services Australia

“We have personally received wonderful feedback and our Evaluation Forms show that 97% enjoyed immensely your speech. Anyway we could have judged the appreciation easily by the level of the laughter on the day.”

The Speech Pathology Association of Australia

“Comments from guests after (Rachel’s) speech, showed they had thoroughly enjoyed (Rachel’s) performance and, indeed, wished that all launches could end on such an uplifting note.”

NRMA

“The night was voted by most publishers to be the best of its kind we have put on. Rachel was a definite hit with what can be a pretty critical, hard-to-please audience.”

Penguin Books

“We all found Rachel to be most entertaining, hilarious in fact. It is always difficult to cater for all people but, in this instance, Rachel did a fantastic job of tickling everybody’s tonsils.”

Honda

“Winner of the Gold Award for Comedy and Humour – Rachel Berger. She won on all judges cards.”

Australian Sporting Industry Awards

“Workplaces were really keen to go smoke-free when it meant they won a visit from Rachel Berger. She did a really good job putting across a serious message in a humorous way – everyone was enormously pleased.”

Quit Campaign

“Ms Berger is a very funny and talented comedian who can tailor her act to suit the audience without sacrificing laughs. She won over the senior executives at our inaugural conference dinner with her natural style, sharp and relevant observations and sheer presence.”

Information Technology International

“A delight to work with. Co-operative, humorous – got the message across. We really enjoyed working with Rachel.”

Kimberley Clark

“We were very pleased with Rachel’s performance. Given only one hour’s preparation with us, she incorporated a great deal of information about firm and notable characters within it. She’d clearly done really good research in terms of accounting phrases and recent industry happenings. We’d been worried that she mightn’t appeal to everyone, being a professional firm, but absolutely everyone thought she was marvelous.”

PricewaterhouseCoopers

“Excellent. Rachael was fabulous, entertaining and a pure delight to work with”

MCI International

“Excellent. Rachel presented a very funny and thoughtful routine in difficult circumstances – A business group breakfast. Very impressed with her efforts to research the basis of our group and time taken afterwards to meet everybody.”

Melbourne Business Awards

“Excellent. The presentation was raved about afterwards. Also the participants who met her afterwards were very pleased to talk to her.”
