SHANE BOURNE

Shane Bourne is one of Australia's best-loved comedians and in recent years has become one of the most sought after performers on the corporate function circuit. His vast experience, professionalism and commanding stage presence make him a great asset to any function, appearing as a comedian, guest speaker or presiding as Master Of Ceremonies. Shane's ability to read an audience combined with his understanding of client requirements guarantees success.

A familiar face to audiences nationwide through many television appearances, including the fondly remembered years on "Hey Hey It's Saturday" and the current hit show "Thank God You're Here".

Shane is a versatile performer with consummate skills and is held in high regard as being very much a class act.

CLIENT FEEDBACK

Shane held them spellbound for his whole performance. His ability to converse with and engage such a large and diverse crowd was excellent. Shane's performance was both polished and he left the captivated audience wanting more.

Master Builders Association

Given your popularity and success, I'm embarrassed to admit that I felt more than a little nervous when your involvement was first suggested. Unleash a comedian on our cynical staff? Now that's risky business, I thought. What if he swears? Insults the Chairman? Tells a politically incorrect joke? But I shouldn't have been concerned. As I joined the shrieks of laughter, I realised the potency of the humour and your talent. It lifted, built rapport, created excitement and set the tone for the remainder of the evening.

Integral Energy

Definitely the highlight of the evening "Shane brought tears & tummy aches of laughter to everyone present". I would absolutely have no hesitations in having you again, or recommending you to someone else.

Vinidex

He pulled out all stops to ensure that our customers enjoyed the evening. We are still receiving positive feedback to this day.
