Rob Carlton

Rob Carlton had a great start to 2006. His film, CARMICHAEL AND SHANE, which he wrote, starred in, co-directed and co-produced, won SONY TROPFEST. And for the first time in the competition's history an actor appeared in two of the final 16 films. The second film he was in won best comedy and Rob was awarded best actor for his performances. But that was this year. He's been around for a little longer than that!!

Not only is he a well recognised actor; Rob is a market leader in hosting Corporate Events. His range of skills includes hosting debates, 'hypotheticals', think tanks, strategic visioning as well as the usual gala dinners, conferencing and team building days. Whilst studying at the University of Sydney Rob was a champion debater and public speaker. His MC background stems from his work as a professional Theatresports™ player, director and host.

Rob is also a produced writer. His play A- Framed was a critical success and has been produced by three different production companies in both Sydney and Melbourne. He has written and sold two feature film screenplays. Rob completed an Arts Degree at the University of Sydney majoring in English and Australian Literature.

This unique blend of writing and performing, coupled with his academic background, places Rob in a perfect position to make your evening a seamless, memorable event.

In the corporate arena Rob's clients include Pfizer, Commonwealth Bank, Intercontinental Hotel Group, EMC, Medfin, Konica Minolta, Dymocks, Dairy Farmers, Elders, IBM, Uncle Toby's, Blake Dawson Waldren, Intentia, Western College, Sanofi Aventis and Cerebos and many more...

I would highly recommend Rob Carlton following the success of our meeting. We have specific code of conduct requirements re educational component during these evenings, which Rob worked within for a fantastic result. Rob was responsible for putting the content of the evening together... elevating the evening to a very fun filled, well paced, entertaining yet educational event. I couldn't recommend Rob's contribution highly enough, a very worthwhile investment."

Commonwealth Bank of Australia

Rob's pro-active style was extremely useful in helping me put together this session. I found the rigorous curiosity of an interested outsider helped frame and sharpen my thinking in the lead up to the event. Rob helped structure the session to maximise the impact of my messages. He researched the industry (both on his own and by talking to many people across our organisation) and clearly understood the content we covered. Rob was a real pleasure to work with and I would not hesitate in recommending him anyone wanting a professional and extremely capable MC.

Konica Minolta

Thanks to Rob Carlton's thorough research, his scripting and his articulate presentation style, our audience always had a very clear understanding as to where these different components sat inside the bigger picture and how they were connected. With his unique blend of humour and authority and his ability to take a brief and write a script, Rob Carlton will add value to any conference.

Commonwealth Bank

Rob facilitated over a day-long session of thin-tanks. Q&A sessions and discussion groups with some of our hotel owners, industry influencers and major clients. We all appreciated his forthright nature and objective opinions, and his ability to balance the day with serious discussion and humour. I was very impressed with his ability to quickly understand the issues relating to the hotel industry and that he was able to encourage delegates by asking the right questions.
