BRIGITTE DUCLOS

Brigitte Duclos, is one of the very few journalists in Australia who can rightly lay claim to a solid grounding in News, Sport and Weather

Brigitte Duclos began her media career in television in 1986, when she joined the Ten news team in Melbourne as one of the first female sports journalists in Australia. She quickly established herself in that role as well as presenting on-the-road News reports and weather.

In 1992, Brigitte joined Triple M Melbourne to read Breakfast news, and with her ferocious laugh and a wit to match, soon became an integral part of the top-rating Richard Stubbs Breakfast show.

Brig returned to the Ten Network in 1996 as host of Monday to Friday, a national daytime show featuring interviews, information and entertainment.

In 1997, after four years of Breakfast radio on Triple M, she joined the drive show The Grill Team with Dermott Brereton and Eddie McGuire, which again topped the ratings. After a stint with Barry Bissell on sister radio station FOX.FM, she returned to Triple M to be a part of The Cage which initially aired on Triple M Drive, before being moved to Breakfast and is currently being heard in Melbourne, Sydney and Adelaide.

Brig has also reviewed movies for Ten's Video Hits, presented a parenting segment for Bert Newton's Good Morning Australia and written columns for the Herald Sun's Sunday Magazine
