“Glenn pitched his presentation at exactly the right level for his audience, and they warmed to him immediately. He was able to present a very serious message in such a fun way that people greatly enjoyed the learning process. The anecdotes were relevant and sensitive. One participant told me afterwards that she had never seen only ever seen two presentations that affected her life profoundly, and this was one of them”.

Excellent! Glenn has 'hit the spot' with our Northern Country Principals and Pre-School Directors with his dynamic yet 'down to earth' presentation. There is a sense of looking differently from the 'balcony' of the office to the 'dancing floor' of the classrooms....a most entertaining journey through ways of managing our wellbeing; innovative ways of looking at the bigger picture of leadership and building in emotional intelligence for leaders.

Northern Country District

“Your talk on the ‘Six Words to Create Magic in Today’s World’ was creative, entertaining and has provided a basis for all of us to think differently in the future.”
