CLIENT FEEDBACK

“Excellent. Phillip Baker is an excellent speaker, in that he has a very powerful message to send across about leadership. My client and I found Phillip to be passionate, thought provoking, appealing, real and even controversial. Phillip is refreshing. He takes real life examples and presents a type of “Harvard Business Review” attitude to the way he analysis leadership in his heroes, identities and historical moments. His use of multi-media enhances his presentation and his message. He’s certainly a leader and a speaker who will be emulated for years to come.”
