RICHARD DORE

Director of Proteus Leadership Centres

Richard joined the team at Proteus as the General Manager of Training in 1998 and with him brought a wealth of knowledge and experience from previous training and development roles. Today Richard is a company Director of The Proteus Leadership Centres and continues to play a significant role in the growth and success of the organisation.

Richard's passion and areas of expertise are in leadership, in assisting organisations to create great workplace cultures and educate individuals to dream big, with clear goals and strategies to manage their lives more effectively.

His remarkable gift for story telling and his ability to share his personal workplace experiences openly and honestly has earned him incredible respect amongst his clients, and his colleagues. Richard's facilitation style has an undeniable wow factor that makes him one of the most sought after and highly regarded speakers across a diverse range of industries and organisations.

He has a unique ability to inject high-level education with a sense of fun and interaction. Motivational, inspirational, hilarious, practical and relevant are just some of the words continually used to describe a day with Richard Dore. It is his ability to demonstrate how people can take complex issues and give them real practical solutions that keeps them coming back again and again.

Richard is now recognised as one of the most effective Business and People Management Educators in Australia and along with CEO, Des Penny writes and develops the Proteus Leadership and Executive Excellence programs.
