Ali Carle

Ali Carle is rapidly developing into one of South Australia's most prominent media personalities. Her days start at 6am as part of Adelaide's number one FM breakfast show on MIX102.3. She's a journalist for National Nine News, writes a weekly column for The Advertiser, as well as reporting and presenting with Channel 9's 'Postcards'.

Growing up in Brisbane, Ali has spent time travelling and working overseas and moved to Adelaide six years ago after her partner headed south to play with the Adelaide Crows. She was a presenter on Foxtel for three years and has extensive experience hosting events as wide-ranging as Sky Racing's Hall of Fame Dinner to coordinating a world record attempt of breastfeeding mothers at Breastfest 2004. She's passionate about the welfare of people with disabilities, having grown up with an intellectually disabled brother and is proud to act as ambassador for several charities. She believes life is all about love, laughter and liberal doses of chocolate!

Ali is a polished, professional performer & MC who brings her upbeat and vibrant personality to everything she's involved with.
