Graham Agnew

Graham Agnew has been involved in professional speaking in one form or another for over two decades. Over the years he has had the opportunity to speak at some of the most prestigious convention venues in Australia, including the Darling Harbour Complex, the Melbourne Concert Hall, the Adelaide Convention Centre and the Burswood Convention Centre in Perth.

Whether it's an audience of 30 or 3000, Graham's message is basically the same - he challenges listeners to look at their attitudes, their level of enthusiasm and personal motivation, as well as their ability to make positive choices in negative circumstances.

With a successful background in the fields of marketing and public relations, Graham is well qualified to address these issues. For a number of years he worked in the Marketing Division of B.P. Australia Limited amongst other top corporations.

Today, he is a leading instructor with the internationally acclaimed Dale Carnegie organisation. In this role he specialises in the training of professional people in the fields of effective communication, human relations, memory development and stress management. He is also an accredited member of the National Speaker's Association.
