Team Sailing Challenge

“Nothing brings a team together better than a mix of excitement, competition, adventure, relaxation and some of the best views around!”

ICMI have teamed up with one of Australia’s most experienced yacht charter companies, Victoria Yacht Charters, and one of the experienced teambuilding organisation Mischief Motivation & Attitude, to create a unique team experience for your organisation. Unlike many corporate sailing days, this package includes a professional team building facilitator that ensures your conference’s key outcomes are an integral part of the day.

A de-brief at the end of the day ensures that the key outcomes are re-enforced to the participants. This experience ensures that not only do participants have a memorable experience, but that they also receive some great “take home” value.
